

Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo™
Glassell Junior School – Museum of Fine Arts Houston
2020 Summer or Fall Class Application

The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo™ will provide 120 awards for students to attend a summer or fall class at the Glassell Junior School of Art. The award will be presented to outstanding Kindergarten – 12th grade students participating in the School Art Program for the year in which the award will be made.

GLASSELL JUNIOR SCHOOL

The Glassell Junior School, part of the Museum of Fine Arts in Houston, offers year round art classes for students ages 3-18.

- Summer classes are a one-week program held Monday through Friday for two hours, with nine weeks to choose from.
- The Fall semester class is a fourteen-week program that meets weekly starting in September and continuing through December. Class options are available Monday-Thursday, as well as Saturday & Sunday.

Recipients will be sent an award packet in early April, complete with registration information for summer or fall. The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo provides the course fee and all art materials for recipients. Transportation and any incidental expenses are the responsibility of the recipient.

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible to apply for the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Glassell Junior School Award, a student must meet artistic and academic criteria.

Artistic: Applicants must be Kindergarten – 12th grade students whose artwork receives Best of Show, Gold Medal, or Special Merit honors in the current year's School Art Program competition.

Academic Standing: To be eligible to apply, a student must be passing all subjects with a minimum grade of 70 at the time of application. Academic eligibility will be verified by a school official and/or by documentation as required by the application.

Letter of Recommendation: A letter of recommendation from the student's art teacher must be included with the application. Letters may be handwritten or typed, but should not exceed one 8 ½" x 11" sheet of paper, front and back. The student's name, school district and school name, grade level and art teacher's name must be in the upper right corner of the first page. The letter of recommendation should include, but is not limited to the following points: the art teacher's assessment of how the student would benefit from participating in the Glassell Junior School Workshop, the student's ability, talent and strengths, and such personal observations that provide insight into the character of the student that would be helpful in the evaluation process.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Applications will be given to eligible students (Kindergarten – 12th grade whose artwork received Best of Show, Gold Medal, or Special Merit honors in competition) by their art teachers following the district judging. Applications are disseminated by Educational Opportunity Representatives (EORs) who are members of the School Art Committee and present at the judging.

Applications must be completed and returned to School Art Program at the following address:

Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo
ATTN: Glassell Junior School Workshop Applications
PO Box 20070
Houston, TX 77225-0070

Deadline for applications is February 3, 2020. Applications must be postmarked by the deadline date. The specific date also appears on the individual student's application eligibility letter. Applications will not be returned and become the property of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.

EVALUATION PROCEDURE

Evaluation and selection of applicants for the Glassell School Workshop Awards is based on the applicant's Grand Prix score and the application, which includes a letter of recommendation from the student's art teacher. The Grand Prix score is assigned to each qualifying piece of art during Grand Prix judging after all district shows have been conducted. Based on these criteria, a special committee comprised of members of the School Art Committee will determine winners of the Glassell School Workshop awards.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF RECIPIENTS

The Glassell Junior School of Art will contact recipients directly to provide registration information and class schedules. Recipients will be able to choose from a variety of classes offered by the School during the summer and fall.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Contact the School Art Educational Opportunity Representative whose name and phone number is on the bottom of the student's application eligibility letter or contact the School Art staff coordinator, at 832-667-1110.
