Application

- Entry forms must be submitted to the HLSR Writing Competition portal.
- A signed Entry Form and Release of Liability must be submitted for the entry to be valid.
- The entry deadline is Dec. 12, 2022.
- There is no entry fee.
- Each entry must include the student author's name, school district, teacher's name, school name, school phone and mailing address, and parent or legal guardian's name and signature.
- Incorrect or incomplete information on the Entry Form may result in disqualification of the entry or a delay in issuing awards.
- Submission of an Entry Form means the student author understands that the judge's decision is final and agrees to abide by the rules and regulations of the Writing Competition.
- The Show has the right to limit entries. Entries will be dated as received and entries received first will have priority. All entries are considered accepted unless the student author is notified otherwise by the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo™.

Judging

The Show will select qualified judges for each competition category. Any questions about the judging criteria may be directed to Darlene Lively and her contact information is listed under Contacts at the end of this document.

Judging will be based on the following categories:

- Ideas & Techniques
- Voice
- Language Conventions

- Presentation

There will be two double blind rounds of judging before advancing to the finals. All entries will be judged in the first round and the top 100 entries will be judged in the second round. The top 20 entries will advance to the final round.

Judges' decisions are final, and protests will not be considered. Results will be published on the Show's website on Monday, Feb. 27, 2023.

Other Considerations

The student author, teacher and parent or legal guardian understand, that as a condition of participation in the Writing Competition, they are granting the HLSR™ permission to promote (via website, social media, and the like) and display the entry; to photograph, film, or otherwise record the entry or entries; and, to reproduce the entry or entries in whole, in part or composite.

The student author and parent or legal guardian waive and release any, and all rights to inspect/approve the final product, and they release, discharge, and hold harmless HLSR™ from any liability by virtue of the use of the entry or entries or images.

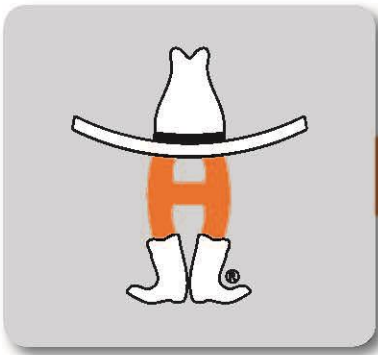

While HLSR™ takes every precaution to ensure the integrity of the entries, HLSR™ and the Trailblazer Committee are not responsible for loss of entries.

Entries with copyright or licensing infringement will not be accepted. If there is any reproduction, in whole or in part, of a registered trademark or work of another individual, the Show reserves the right to disqualify the entry.

The Show is a family-oriented event. The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo™ reserves the right to disqualify any entry that, in the Show's sole judgment, is deemed inappropriate for family reading, is controversial, or in poor taste prior to judging.

The Show will not be liable for entries made in error and will not re-open judging to accommodate such entries.

All entries will become property of the Show.
