

2022 ROUNDUP & BEST BITES COMPETITION

2022 PARTICIPANT SIGN-UP

The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo™ invites you to be a culinary participant in the 2022 Rodeo Uncorked! Roundup & Best Bites Competition on Sunday, Feb. 20, 2022.

As a participant and contributor, the Roundup & Best Bites Competition allows you to showcase your cuisine to our wine and food loving guests. Guests will enjoy your bites while sipping award-winning wines from the Rodeo Uncorked! International Wine Competition. With its growing success, we typically host more than 5,500 food and wine connoisseurs for this fun evening at NRG Center. Belt buckle awards will be given to our top competitors across multiple food categories.

Our layout maximizes guest interaction and culinary exposure, while utilizing the outside area for our food truck participants. Participants who sign up by Dec. 6, 2021, will have an opportunity to request their booth location. Please refer to the enclosed layout to select your preferred section. Please note this layout is subject to change as we incorporate potential recommendations to hold a safe event in 2022. Location requests will be granted as space allows.

Sign up today by filling out the online survey and reviewing the indemnity form. You may also contact the Wine Show office at wine@rodeohouston.com. We can't wait to show off our restaurant participants and host foodies from all over Houston. See you there!
