

Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo™ School Art Program 2024 QUICK DRAW CONTEST RULES

1. Any junior high (grades 6, 7, or 8) or any high school student enrolled in a public independent school district or private school that is registered as a participant in the current Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo School Art Program may apply. The student does not need to be currently enrolled in an art class.
2. Applicants must have a social security number (SSN) or an individual tax identification number (ITIN). S numbers are not accepted. Applicants must provide their tax number on a completed W-9 at the sign-in table on the contest day in order to compete in the contest.
3. The applicant must return one black and white sketch on an 8.5 x 11 sheet of white paper with their application. Submitted drawings must be a “quick sketch” with a recommended time limit of 50 minutes, which is the same amount of time given during the competition. Only one entry per student may be submitted with the application. Drawings and applications will not be returned and become property of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.
4. The contest will have two high school classes and one junior high class:

High School

Full Figure Class (head to toe with all clothing defined)

Portrait Class (full head)

Junior High

Still Life Class

5. High school contestants may participate in only one class. Class preferences must be marked on the application, or the application will not be considered. Student's 1st Class preference is not guaranteed and is assigned at check-in.
6. Application due date is December 1, 2023. Applications must be received at HLSR no later than the deadline date of December 1, 2023. Late applications will not be accepted. Please make sure applications are sent in plenty of time to arrive at HLSR by December 1, 2023.
7. Notification of selection for the contest will be communicated to selected finalists and alternates by December 15, 2023, by email. The selected finalists and alternates will also be posted on the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo Web site at www.rodeohouston.com no later than December 15, 2023. The contest winners will be posted on the Web site after the contest.
8. For each class, 26 finalists will be chosen for a total of 52 high school finalists and 26 junior high finalists to participate in the contest. A minimum of five finalists in a class is required to qualify the class to be judged.
9. Students selected as finalists will receive a Release of Liability and Indemnity form and a W-9 in the mail. Bring these completed forms to the contest. DO NOT MAIL TO THE SHOW.
10. The contest will be held in NRG Center on Sunday, January 21, 2024, at 2:00 p.m.

11. Participant check-in begins at 1:00 p.m. and ends at 1:45 p.m. Alternates will be seated promptly at 1:45 p.m. Late participants will be seated after alternates, if applicable.
12. Students may bring their own drawing pencils (3B, black Prisma or charcoal) or use the 3B or black Prisma pencils furnished at the contest.
13. School Art Committee judges will set up the Still Life and the Portrait and Full Figure models and judge the Quick Draw Contest. Only one entry per student will be judged.
14. An Overall High School Champion will be awarded from all submissions in both classes. A Class Champion and a Reserve Class Champion will also be selected from each high school class.
15. The junior high Still Life Class will have a Champion and a Reserve Champion
16. Winners will be announced, and recognition awards presented immediately following the judging.
17. Cash prizes will be awarded as follows. Cash prizes will be mailed in April 2024.

High School

Champion, $1,000
Class Champion, $750
Reserve Class Champion, $500
3rd Place, $250
4th Place, $100

Junior High

Champion, $500
Reserve Champion, $300
3rd Place, $200
4th Place, $100

18. The judge's decisions are final.
19. Finalists who participate in the contest and selected alternates who participate in the contest will have the opportunity to apply for the Glassell Jr. School of Art through the Museum of Fine Art Houston.
20. All eligible 12th grade finalists and alternates in attendance at the contest will be able to apply for a Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo college scholarship.
21. All winning art will become the property of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo.